

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church

Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees is typical.

Third Sunday of Easter
APRIL 19, 2015

You alone, O LORD,
bring security to my dwelling.

— Psalm 4:9

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Fr. Steve

The message of Easter is clear: Jesus is alive! He is risen from the dead and lives now in the new and glorious life of Easter! Our fifty day celebration of Easter continues today as we hear St. Luke's story of the appearance of Jesus to the disciples gathered in Jerusalem. Panic and fright are the first reactions of the disciples to the appearance of Jesus (Luke 24:35ff). He must convince them that it is not a ghost they are seeing but truly it is Jesus risen from the dead. At times we can be like these disciples or like the people in the First Reading who "acted out of ignorance" in denying the Holy and Righteous One and putting to death the Author of Life (Acts of the Apostles 3:13ff). These Easter days are an invitation to come to know Jesus "in the breaking of the bread" of the Eucharist and to allow him to open our minds to "understand the Scriptures" so we can see that we have "an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous One. He is an expiation for our sins..." (in the words of today's Second Reading from 1 John 2:1ff). His Easter greeting to all is: "Peace be with you."

- At the 10:00 AM Mass this Sunday our Second Year Confirmation Candidates and their sponsors will celebrate the Rite of Acceptance for Confirmation. We ask your prayers for these Candidates as they continue their preparations to receive the Holy Spirit in Confirmation on Sunday, May 17 at Mass at 4:30 PM.
- At the 12 Noon Mass this Sunday we will have special celebrations with the adults who have walked with us in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults) on Tuesday evenings since last September. Three adults baptized in other Christian Churches will make their Profession of Faith and be received into the Catholic Church; three Catholic adults will join them in receiving the Holy Spirit in the Sacrament of Confirmation and three Catholic adults will join them in celebrating their First Holy Communion. Another member of the RCIA group was baptized at the Easter Vigil and received the Holy Spirit in Confirmation and celebrated his first Holy Communion. Please pray for all these adults as we celebrate God's love for them in these Sacramental celebrations in our Church. Our parish is blessed in their presence with us.

Administrative Handbook for the Archdiocese of Los Angeles

For the first time, the Archdiocese has a handbook that integrates a wide range of pre-existing resources, guides, manuals and other publications to offer a single comprehensive source of information on archdiocesan administrative policies and procedures. This new resource also includes Chapter 9, a special section which provides detailed information about all of the Safe Environment policies, procedures, programs, forms and other resources utilized by the archdiocese of the protection of our children and young people. Go to: <http://handbook.la-archdiocese.org/chapter-9/section-9-1>.

WHOLE COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING Week of April 19th ~ Luke 24:35-38

Reflection: In this week's Gospel, the risen Christ appears to the disciples as they are being told about His appearance to the two disciples in the breaking of the bread. In each case, the disciples do not immediately recognize Jesus. So often we do not see Jesus among us. As people of faith, we are taught and understand that God is always with us. This does not mean that we truly conceive this powerful truth because we often feel we must do everything ourselves or that God couldn't possibly be bothered with us.

Question: When have I had an "Aha" moment, when I suddenly realized that God was with me?
Faith Response: I will spend time this week meditating on my closeness to God and what it means to have Him with me at all times.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

With the Easter season well under way, we now resume our survey of the sacrament of the sick. The pastoral care of the sick will be misunderstood if we start from the vantage point of the sickroom. Begin with the Sunday assembly, from which the sick person has been separated by the crisis of illness, and whose absence is given expression in prayer and service. The goal is to extend the consolation of the Lord's presence at the table to those who are apart from it, and for the assembly to enfold them in prayer.

Secondarily, the goal is to teach people what the Church desires for all those who are sick. Seeing ministers dispatched to the sick from Mass every Sunday might help a caregiver realize that their dear one can also receive Communion. Witnessing the anointing of a woman facing surgery might help another person to overcome hesitation and ask for the sacrament's healing and strength. Society's impulse may be to marginalize the sick, but the tradition of our community is to see them at the center of our life. When Roman persecutors ordered St. Lawrence the Deacon to hand over the jewels of the church, he assembled a motley crew of the sick and the infirm and announced with all humility, "Behold, my lord, the treasures of the church of Christ."
