The Second Sunday Of Lent

MARCH 1, 2015

If God is for us, who can be against us?

— Romans 8:31b

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

© J.S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Fr. Steve

Mount Moriah, the Mount of Calvary and Mount Thabor are the settings for this Sunday's Readings. On Mount Moriah Abraham's faith in God and his promises is tested. God says: "Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love...and offer him up as a holocaust"(Genesis 22:1ff). As Abraham prepares to make this great sacrifice, he discovers that God is a God of life and blessings who does not desire human sacrifice like the Canaanite gods of old. In the Second Reading, Paul speaks about what happened on the hill of Calvary: that "God did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all", so showing that "God is for us" and Christ Jesus "intercedes for us"(Romans 8:31ff). On Mount Thabor (in today's Gospel, Mark 9:2ff). we see Jesus transfigured in glory. For a few moments Peter, James and John have a glimpse of the glory of Jesus which will be seen after his death and resurrection at Easter. Lent is intended to be our mountain-top experience of God. As we walk with Jesus towards Jerusalem and his death on the Cross on Good Friday and resurrection at Easter, may we listen more to Jesus. If we listen to Jesus, then we can face the test of faith that life brings us and we will be faithful and see the Cross of Calvary lead to the glory of Mount Thabor and Easter resurrection.

- Many thanks to all who are responding to the Annual Appeal, Together in Mission. Your generous donation or four month pledge are very important for our parish to meet its goal of $42,000 for the Annual Appeal. So far we have received $28,203 towards the parish goal. We ask for more generous parishioners to help us meet the goal. All funds go to only to the 80 parishes and 63 parish schools that need help to provide the ministry of Christ in our own Archdiocese of Los Angeles. Many thanks and God's blessings on all.

- Children from our Sunday morning Religious Education program will help us celebrate 10 AM Mass next Sunday.

- We invite you to come to daily Mass at 7:45 AM in Lent and to the Friday Stations of the Cross at 6:00 PM followed by Soup Supper in the Parish Hall. You may sign up at the doors of the Church this Sunday to bring soup from home for the Soup Supper or call Sister Kathleen Patrice at 969-4868.

- May each day of Lent be a time to die to self and live more for God and for others!
- Online giving is now available at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church. Online giving is a convenient and safe way to make your donations which show your love for God and his Church, especially if are out of town or unable to come to Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church every Sunday. WHOLE COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING*Week of March 1st ~ Mark 9:2-10

Reflection: This week's Gospel tells of the experience of Peter, James and John as they witness the transfiguration of Jesus as he spoke to Moses and Elijah. The disciples were moved, but didn't know how to react to such a miraculous sight. They also witnessed the voice of God instructing them to listen to Jesus. This should remind us not to get caught up in the drama of a situation, but to listen.

Question: How am I responding to God's command to "Listen to him" during Lent?

Faith Response: I will spend time reflecting on my own "mountain top" experience.

40 DAYS FOR LIFE DURING LENT

During the Lenten Season, you have the opportunity to participate in the International Campaign of '40 Days for Life' —a time of prayer and fasting to end the death of innocent babies by abortion.
