Erected in 1936, the entire structure reflects the architectural style developed by missionaries, combining the building patterns of the Pueblo Indians with Spanish-Colonial design. Even the landscaping, with carefully selected shrubs and trees is typical.

WHOLE COMMUNITY FAITH SHARING

Week of May 4th — Luke 24:13-35

Faith Reflection: This Sunday's Gospel story from Luke begins and ends with an awareness of Jesus' absence. At first, Jesus is a stranger to the two disciples; they don't recognize Him and are surprised that this stranger has not heard about Jesus of Nazareth. When they are closer to their village, the disciples extend an invitation to the stranger to, "Stay with us." Then in a manner which recalled the Last Supper, He took the bread, blessed it, broke it and gave it to them; at that point, they came to know Him. Jesus' disappearance at the point of recognition was not a disappointment but yet another sign that the risen Lord would remain forever with His disciples in the breaking of the bread and in the sharing of His word. The experience of those early disciples is ours at every Eucharistic celebration. With fire in our hearts, the Word reveals who He is; in the blessed and broken bread the Paschal experience is renewed, we who hear the word and share the bread are nourished and sustained.

Faith Question: Christ continues to feed me as His disciple even after his death and resurrection. How does the Eucharist feed my faith?

Faith Response: This week I will meditate on the Eucharist and thank Jesus for my many blessings.

Safeguard Our Children

Safeguard our Youth

Having Effective Communication

The most important key to helping keep your children safer is effective communication with them. The first step you should take is to establish an atmosphere in the home in which your children/teen truly feel comfortable about discussing sensitive matters and relating experiences in which anyone may have approached them in an inappropriate manner or a way that made them feel uncomfortable, sad, confused or scared. The truth is children are often too afraid or confused to report their experiences and fears. Allow them to talk freely about their likes, dislikes, friends and feelings. Children will often "shut down" and refuse to tell more if you respond emotionally or negatively. Visit the Resources at www.missingkids.com.

Therefore my heart is glad and my soul rejoices.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

In today's Gospel (Luke 24.13ff), we have one of the most beautiful stories in the Bible, the story of how two disciples meet Jesus on the road to Emmaus. It is Easter Day and the disciples are walking away from Jerusalem, discouraged and disillusioned after the death of Jesus on Good Friday. Jesus walks along with them without their knowing that it is Jesus. In their journey together Jesus opens the Word of God to them so they can see that all that has happened to Jesus is part of God's plan. As they listen, their hearts burn within them. "Stay with us" are the beautiful words they speak to Jesus. As he breaks the bread with them at table, their eyes are opened and they finally realize it is Jesus. Like the disciples, we too are on an "Emmaus walk" through life with Jesus and each other. He is with us, especially in times of trouble and worry, to console and strengthen, lead and guide us. He is with us in the "breaking of bread" of the Holy Eucharist. May we realize that we walk with Jesus and our fellow Christians each day as we face life with faith in Jesus risen from the dead.

- The 10:00 AM Mass this Sunday is a Family Mass celebrated with the help of the children in our Religious Education Program.
- In these fifty days of Easter celebration we have many joyful celebrations: the children of our parish are celebrating their First Holy Communion at this time - children from Our Lady of Mount Carmel School celebrated First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 3 and children from the Sunday morning Religious Education Program will celebrate their First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 10; on Sunday, May 11 we will celebrate Mother's Day; on Sunday, May 18 at 12 noon our teen and adult candidates for Confirmation will celebrate the Sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Curry at 12 noon Mass. Please pray for all involved in these celebrations.
- RCIA for Non-Catholics inquiring into the Catholic Faith and for Catholic adults preparing for First Holy Communion and Confirmation will take place on Tuesday, from 7:00 to 8:30 PM in the Spiritual Library in the School.
- A new short Bible Study with Father Steve on the Letters of St. John will begin on Monday, May 19 from 10:30 AM to 12 noon in the Parish Hall and on Wednesday, May 21 from 7:00 to 8:30 PM in the Spiritual Library in the School. All are welcome. Bring your Bible.
